IN ADDITION, please include your resume documenting professional experiences thus far. Include prizes, scholarships, professional or institutional performing experiences, any music employments, and teaching/coaching background. Resume must list three references (could include teachers, other musical mentors or employers) who can attest to your performance capabilities or suitability to coach high school-age/college underclassmen students. It is likely references will be contacted, so please verify their willingness to serve as references before listing.

Include a separate repertoire list of solo works that would be ready for performance at festival time and chamber works studied.

Application fee (nonrefundable) $50

The Mentored Residency Program admission is open to violin, viola, cello, bass and piano emerging professionals over the age of 21. The program was created to bridge the gap between study and professional life for students who demonstrate exceptional potential for success in the music performance world.

Accepted mentored residents will be mentored by and perform alongside Institute festival artists, interact in the administration and execution of the festival and academy, and engage in an intensive level of study as both soloists and ensemble artists. Mentored residents will take private lessons, rehearse and perform together and alongside professionals in evening festival concerts, coach and mentor academy groups, and receive critical commentary from Institute faculty and staff, benefitting from the rich and varied life experiences of established professionals.

Travel Stipend

Mentored residents will receive up to $300 for travel stipend. This stipend will be issued on a reimbursement basis.
